Online reading library

Last year we invested in the Collins eLibrary giving all children access to ability appropriate books. Please try to access the books on your child's personal eLibrary as often as you do the paper books. These books are targeted for your child's phonic needs, and are updated as your child learns more phonics and more vocabulary as they move through school. Most children have access to at least 20 books on there so you can access them whenever you want.

Here is the link to log in:

Accessing the reading books online when you can is way to keep reading at home. A balance of the 2 types of books will ensure that your child becomes a confident reader in a range of different media.

Don't forget to write the book in your Reading Record and sign it for all books you have read - we love to give out dojos for our readers!

Older children can also login to accelerated reader and take a quiz on the books they have read on the eLibrary to check their understanding of the book, this builds on their reading target for the term. <https://ukhosted102.renlearn.co.uk/6704549/Public/RPM/Login/Login.aspx?srcID=s>

National survey of children, The Big Ask

The new Children's Commissioner for England, Dame Rachel de Souza, has launched The Big Ask – the largest ever consultation with children aged 4 to 17 in England. It aims to find out children's concerns and aspirations about the future, so that the government can put children at the heart of our country's recovery from the coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak.

Parents, care leavers and those working with children are also invited to complete the adult survey to share their views about the future for children and young people today, and what they think is holding young people back.

The results from this survey will help the Children's Commissioner identify the barriers preventing children from reaching their potential, put forward solutions and set ambitious goals for the country to achieve.

Did you know?

On 14th May 1796, 225 years ago, Sir Edward Jenner tested the first ever vaccine. He gave his gardener's son a small amount of cowpox to see if it stopped him from getting the full disease. It worked, and he went on to invent the smallpox vaccination we still use today!
